LESSONS LEARNED AND RECOMMENDATIONS

• Based on identified needs governmental institutions (in particular MHRR) should continue planning and programming of grants for projects for Roma housing and creation of sustainable income generation and employment for Roma families after the Roma Decade 2005-2015

• Recommended active participation of all stakeholders in beneficiary selection process in close cooperation with local communities, social welfare centres, local Roma associations and other Roma representatives

• Further awareness raising about the rights of the Roma population and the availability of education, health and other means of social inclusion in the local community

• Further raising of public awareness of the Roma population, their tradition, culture and history - the significant role of Roma associations

• To continue the successful cooperation of the government sector, international organizations and Roma Associations in joint projects
